

LONG ISLAND UNIVERSITY

SYLLABUS POLICY/PROCEDURE

PURPOSE

The purpose of this policy is to ensure University adherence to regulatory and accreditation requirements for course syllabi.

STATEMENT OF POLICY

Long Island University must adhere to the regulatory requirements of the New York State Education Department (NYSED) and accreditation requirements of its regional accreditor, the Middle States Commission on Higher Education (MSCHE). An important area of instructional compliance is the syllabus compliance requirements. The University's policy has been formulated to ensure full compliance with this regulatory requirement and is in effect for all NYSED-registered programs.

For information about how the University complies with credit hour requirements of the New York State Education Department, see Credit Hour Policy.
